

Hello,
I am a media consumer and a citizen concerned about a nonolithic domination of the airwaves.

The FCC should encourage stations to air community responsive programming.

The FCC should ensure that all programming decisions are made at the local level.